

HIGH LIFE ART EXHIBITION – CALL FOR ARTISTS & PROSPECTUS

CALL FOR EXCEPTIONAL HIGH SCHOOL ARTISTS!

The “High Life” Art Exhibition is happening at the Splatter Festival on September 10, 2022, from 1-5pm. The Call for Artists is open to those who are in High School in Dublin this year and artworks can be created in any 2D or 3D medium (e.g., paintings, drawings, photography, ceramics, and sculptures).

The goal the “High Life” Art Exhibition is to foster artistic endeavor in young artists considering creative careers and is open to students enrolled in High School (public or private) including Art Schools in Dublin, California, aged 14 and older (or in grades 9-12). This is the first time that this Art Exhibition will be held.

- Artwork will be selected by a jury and must be framed ready to hang / display by September 9.
- Prizes will be awarded for Best of Show and Honorable Mention artworks.
- Date & Location: Saturday, September 10 from 1-5pm in the Dublin Wave.
- An invitation only Opening Reception with Supervisor David Haubert and Mayor Melissa Hernandez will be held from 12 noon to 1pm on September 10.

This will be a creative and engaging addition to the Splatter event and is a great way to display your work for the community to see. We are looking for excellence in artistic practice and outstanding creations in your medium of choice.

Artists must be available to drop their work off on Friday, September 09 from 2-6pm at the Wave in Dublin. All artworks must be collected by 7pm on Saturday, September 10.

This is a temporary exhibit. Artists must provide their own display easel or rack appropriate for the display of their artworks. This will be an indoor exhibition, but wall mounting is not available.

To qualify, artists must complete the Online Registration Form by August 26, 2022. Thanks to our Sponsors there is no Registration Fee for this event. A maximum of 3 artworks per submission are allowed.

Sale of exhibited artwork will be permitted however artists are required to manage their own sales. No commission on sales will be taken. All artists will be notified by Friday, September 2 if their submission has been accepted into the show.

Please reach out to the High Life Exhibition Chair with any questions by email to events@dacarts.org
